Ginn Resorts Fan Experience offers enhanced hospitality area for Principal Charity Classic golf fans Friday through Sunday

(WEST DES MOINES, Iowa) – Fans can watch The Principal Charity Classic tournament action from the Ginn Resorts Fan Experience – an on-course restaurant and bar that overlooks two holes of Glen Oaks Country Club.

In addition to an exceptional view of holes 13 and 14, people who visit the Ginn Resorts Fan Experience can watch tournament coverage on The Golf Channel and buy food and drinks. The Ginn Resorts Fan Experience is open to all fans Friday through Sunday.

“With skybox-like amenities such as air conditioning, food and beverages and the great view, the Ginn Resorts Fan Experience gives all spectators a new way to enjoy our tournament,” said The Principal Charity Classic Tournament Director Jeff Starr. “We believe this hospitality area will be a very popular addition to the tournament for our fans.”

The Principal Charity Classic field features four of the top five players in the 2007 Charles Schwab Cup standings: Jay Haas, Denis Watson, Tom Kite and Hale Irwin. In addition, five of the six previous tournament champions are returning to play Glen Oaks Country Club: Bob Gilder (2002), Tom Jenkins (2005), Gil Morgan (2007), Jim Thorpe (2001), and D.A. Weibring (2004).

Tickets may be purchased at www.principalcharityclassic.com or at Scheels in Jordan Creek Town Center. All kids ages 15 and under will be admitted free to The Principal Charity Classic with a ticketed adult.

About The Principal Charity Classic
